(By Associated Press.) COPENHAGEN, DENMARK, June 26.-A serious disaster occurred last night near here, when the Danish cadet train near here, when the Danish cadet training schooner George Stage was rammed and conk by the British steamer Ancona. The George Stage sank in one and one-half minutes. Twenty-two cadets were drowned and fifty-seven rescued.

The boys were all in their bunks at the time of the disaster. The night was overcast, but it was not so dark that objects could not be seen at some distance.

The Ancona was considerably damaged along her water line. The port authorities have placed an embargo on the Ancona, which will remain here until the inquiry into the collision is completed. Thus far only a single body Las been Thus far only a single body las been recovered by the divers, who have gone recovered by the divers, who have gone down to the wrock.

First Officer Myhre, of the George Stage, attributes the accident to the Ancona's changing her course. He said the Ancona's bow crashed seven feet into the training schooner's side, bringing down the latter's masts and rigging and preventing many of the cadets from gaining the deck. Those who were not entangled in the wreckage sprang on board the Ancona and assisted in launching lifeboats. Myrhe himself jumped into the water and rescued many boys who were entangled in the rigging.

The George Stage was a schooner of 206 tons and was 103 feet long. Apparently she was a training vessel for the mercantile marine and was owned by a private firm of Copenhagen.

WANTS OLD FLAG.

Kentucky Veteran Writes to Governor for Return of Ensign.

Governor Montague has received a letter from Colonel L. H. N. Salyer, of Whitesburg, Ky., asking as to the battle flag of the Fiftieth Virginia Infantry, which he assumes is among those returned to this State by the Federal government. Colonel Salyer desires to secure the flag of his old command and writes that many old comrades units in this request. It is not positively known that the flag is among the number returned to this State, but there is one on the list put down as the Fiftieth Volunteers, which may be the flag in question. There is one in the list of flags which answers the description of the one desired.

Even if the flag be among the number it is doubtful if the Executive has authority to deliver it to Colonel Salyer. It is the property of the State, and if the effort were made to restore it to its old command it is hard to decide to whom it would go, but hardly to a citizen of another State.

Saw Enough to Suit Him.

Saw Enough to Suit Him.

After "seeing" the country for three months, James Evans, a sixteen-year-old boy of No. 622 China Street, has returned to his home thoroughly satisfied that after all there "is no place like home." The youngster started out about three months ago, and told his parents he was going to see the world. He evidently saw it, but upon his return he expressed the desire to remain under the parental roof from henceforth.

State Cannot Help Him.

The Governor has received a letter from Charles C. Lee, an attorney of Charles ton, Ill, asking if H. L. Goff, of the Thirty-seventh Virginia Infantry, is entitled to a pension under the laws of Virginia. He states that Mr. Goff is old, feeble and He states that Mr. Goff is old, feeble and in destitute circumstances, but is an honorable man. The State cannot help him for the reason that he is not a resident nor a citizen of this State. Some of his old comrades or the veteran camps of this city may, however, be able to aid this city may, however, be able to aid this old soldler in his destitution. The matter may come before the camps.

Express Their Thanks.

The brothers and silsers of Mr. J. Co Tutwiler wish to thank his friends the many kindnesses extended to the first their hereavement, and especially they wish to thank the employes of Passenger and Power Company and associates for their sympathy, so bear fully and touchingly expressed.

The Russian Ambassador Makes Hurry Trip to Station to Say Farewell.

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, June 26.—President Roosevelt left Washington at 5:30 o'clock this afternoon by special train over the insylvania Railroad for Cambridge cises at Harvard University. dent will not return to Washington, but dent will not return to Washington, but will go to Oyster Bay for the summer. Just before the departure of the special train, Count Cussini, the Russian ambassador, was driven to the station, having been unable to reach the White House to bid the President farewell. He was met on the platform by Mr. Roosevelt, and they held a hurried conversation, during which they clasped hands warmly.

TEACH LADIES TO SKATE

TEACH LADIES TO SKATE.

Belleving in the old saw that an ounce of prevention is better tipn a pound of cure, the mansgement of the big skating rink at the Reservoir have had J. A. Allard, an expert skater and skating teacher, appointed a special officer to maintain order and discipline on the floor of the rink at all times.

Mr. Allard has been appointed floormaster of the rink, and in connection with his other duties, he will teach ladies and children how to skate gracefully. During the afternoons and that portion of the evenings while the floor is reserved exclusively for ladies and children and gentlemen with ladies, Mr. Allard will devote his time to teaching the ladies and children. At night, when the floor is open to all orderly skaters. Mr. Allard will supervise the skaters and see that the more timid learners are in no way interfered with by those who have mastered the art of skating. No racing or playing tag or any such disorder will be permitted at any time.

The management expects later on to have certain, hours in the week for races and hockey contests, but until that time all patrons will be required to conform to the rules governing the speed of skaters.

DARLING TAKES WALKER CASE UP

Refuses to Indicate Character of Evidence Laid Before Him Yesterday.

WILL REPORT TO PRESIDENT

Case Has Attracted Considerable Attention and May Develop Some Sensations.

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, D. C., June 26,-Acting Secretary of the Navy Darling conducted a hearing to-day in the matter of the alleged differences between Civil Engineer Walker, of the navy, and the New York Continental Jewell Filteration Company in connection with the con-struction of the dock at the navy yard at Charleston, S. C., for which that com pany has the contract.

It has been claimed by the contractors that Lieutenant Walker was too severe in his exactions in certain particulars. An order was recently issued transfer-ring him to another station, but an ap-neal was made to the President to have peal was made to the President to have Lieutenant Walker retained at the peal was made to the President to have Lieutenant Walker retained at the Charleston yard, when the President directed that the order for his transfer be held up until he had been advised of all the facts in the case. It was claimed that the lieutenant only did what he deemed to be his duty.

Those heard to-day on behalf of the company were John Dougherty and W. P. Anderson, president and vice-president, respectively, of the company, and the company's consulting engineer. Lieutenant Walker and Civil Engineer Harris, who also was attached to the Charleston yard, gave their statements. Communications addressed to the President on this subject will be considered by Mr. Darling in connection with the statements made to-day. The acting secretary declined to enter into details of the case as laid before him, and would not indicate what conclusions he had reached, as he will make a full report to the President on the subject.

GAYNOR-GREENE CASE.

Argument of Motion of United States to Quash Appeal.

GTAWA. ONT., June 26.—Argument was heard in the Supreme Court to-day on a motion on behalf of the government of the United States to quash the appeal of Gaynor and Greene, held for extradition at Montreal from the judgment of the Court of Kings Bench, afextradition at Montreal from the judgment of the Court of Kings Bench, affirming the refusal of a writ of prohibition by Judge Davidson against the issue of a warrant for extradition. The grounds on which the petition was based were that the appeal was against good faith as it was only another mode of obtaining a discharge on habeas corpus in which no appeal would lie, and that it was a proceeding in prohibition arising out of a criminal charge as to which no appeal can lie to the Supreme Court of Canada. Messrs. MacMaster and Stuart argued for the motion and Messrs. Casgrain and Taschercau against it.
